

Shrimp Peeling Contest---Rules!

Wild Ocean Seafood Market

1. The Shrimp are a “boat run” product. This means that all shrimp are not the same size. Every contestant has 2 / lbs of shrimp at start to clean. If shrimp are all cleaned before time limit, more shrimp will be provided.
2. Winners are judged on the weight of the shrimp that they peel within the time limit. You must peel the shrimp completely clean any shrimp with shell on it will be disqualified.
3. All shell, tails and misc parts must be placed in empty trash container next to you.
4. When time is called, cleaned Shrimp that are to be weighted must be in the bowl in front of you.
5. Contest will last 3 minutes. Winner along with 2nd and 3rd place will be determined by the amount of cleaned shrimp by weight placed in each contestants cleaned shrimp container.
6. You will begin when the whistle blows...we will blow the whistle a second time when 3 minutes is up! Any shrimp not cleaned when 2nd whistle blows will not be counted.
7. If any shrimp shell or legs are still attached to the shrimp that shrimp will not be counted.
8. Once the timed event whistle has been blown I will immediately stop peeling shrimp and sit back from the table so a judge can weigh my shrimp.
9. Although I may peel all of my shrimp within the timed event they must be counted/weighed to verify accuracy prior to judgement.
10. I agree to produce a form of identification to verify my age in order to enter in any event.
11. Photographs will be taken of all participants, especially the winners and I grant Wild Ocean Seafood and the Port Canaveral Association the exclusive, perpetual right to publish, use, edit, adapt, modify, and/or copy photos for any and all purposes in any and all media currently in existence or hereafter invented with out any compensation to me.
